ASSOCIATE DEVELOPMENT COMPANIES
(ADCs)

§ 120.850 ADC functions.

(a) An ADC must support local economic development efforts. An ADC may package, close, and service loans for a CDC under a written contract approved by SBA. Such contracts must meet Service Provider criteria, and specify the rights and responsibilities of the parties (including payment terms). The CDC remains solely responsible to SBA for the processing, closing, and servicing of the loan. It may not charge the Borrower a higher fee because it is using the ADC's services.

(b) An ADC must operate in accordance with statutes, regulations, policy notices, SBA's Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs), and the information in its application. It must supply to SBA current and accurate information about all certification and operational requirements, and maintain the records required by SBA.

§ 120.851 ADC eligibility and operating requirements.

(a) An ADC must demonstrate to SBA and maintain the following:

- (1) Adequate management ability;
- (2) A Board of Directors meeting at least quarterly and chosen from the membership by the members;

(3) A professional staff, including at least one qualified full-time professional with small business lending experience available during regular business hours; and

(4) A budget or financial statements showing the financial capability and funding to sustain continuing operations.

(b) An ADC may contract out for staff services only if SBA gives prior approval. The contract, subject to SBA audit, may not be self-serving, and compensation must be reasonable and customary.

§ 120.852 Suspension and revocation of ADCs.

SBA may require corrective action, or the AA/FA may suspend or revoke ADC status upon written notice stating the reasons therefore at least 10 business days prior to the effective date of the suspension or revocation. Reasons for suspension or revocation may include violations of applicable statutes, regulations or published SBA policies and procedures. An ADC may appeal the suspension or revocation made under this section pursuant to the procedures set forth in part 134 of this chapter. The action of the AA/FA shall remain in effect pending resolution of the appeal.
